"Other Prisoners:"

Clause (d) of Para 3 under the aforesaid heading may be deleted. Such a clause does not find a place either in "A" or in "B". If this clause is kept, prisoners who fully deserve a release, may not be released and their non-payment of fine may be due to reasons beyond their control, viz., their inability to pay the fine. Thus, by retaining this clause, deserving cases for release may be ignored. Hence, this clause may be deleted. We are remitting fines in the case of political and other prisoners who are released and as such this clause may not be insisted upon.

Later, I find that in flag 'E' instructions are issued to retain such a clause. But the said instruction may be relaxed, for it is not proper, to class (d) class prisoners, along with (a) (b) and (c) class prisoners of Para 3.

With the exception of the aforesaid change the other portions of the Memorandum are allright.

(d) of para 2 is not to be found in the notifications issued. But on a reference to the ~~Dewan~~ D.M. Shimoga, it was ordered that remission of imprisonment under the notification did not extend to cases of imprisonment in default of fine. Imprisonment whether substantive or for default carries the same consequences so far as the ~~accused~~ convict is concerned. The clemency may be extended to both cases.
But this does not prevent the Govt from recovering
the fine wherever it is possible to do so.

It is a point for consideration whether political prisoners may be released in toto as only a small number will remain in jail and many of them have served out major portion of the term of imprisonment.

With these modifications, the draft may be approved.

(ii) all prisoners, male and female, unde sentence of one month or less who ha worked out one-third of their senten on or before the 8th September 1940, ~~will be released~~;

(iii) all other female prisoners whose release will not be dangerous to society ~~will be released~~;

(v) ~~in addition to the above~~, male prisoners up to a number not exceeding 10 per cent of the remaining total number of adult male prisoners in the Jails, ~~will be released~~, the selection being made according to the directions contained in the succeeding paragraphs.

3. In selecting the prisoners to be released under Para 2 (v) above, the following classes of prisoners are to be excluded from consideration, viz:-

(i) Those whose conduct during impri sonment in the Jail has been bad or turbulent;

(ii) Those under life sentences, whos original offences were of such a ~~kind~~ as to make the convicts per manently dangerous to society o public order, if restored to liberty; or whose crimes were committed in such circumstances that their release is likely to give rise to a renewal of blood-~~fe~~ds, or other disturbances of the kind; and

(iii) Professional or habitual crimin and prisoners convicted more th twice.

~~(iv) Members of those convicted under Crim Tribes Act 1916.~~

4. In the selection of prisoners wh are to be given the benefit of this or de the following classes of prisoners shoul receive special consideration:-

(a) Those who have generally borne a good character and have been led by sudden impulse to commit crimes such as riot, affray, assault ~~and~~ culpable homicide in a moment of anger, and those ~~offenders~~ whose crimes were committed in circumstances whic would greatly extenuate their guilt.

(b) Those who, though the crimes committed by them were of a grave character, have expiated them to some extent/ by long imprisonment with good behaviour. In this category are to be included prisoners who, on the ground of advanced age or bodily infirmity, are fit subjects for clemency.

5. Prisoners who become eligible for release in the ordinary course by the termination of their sentence on the 8th September 1940, should not be treated as among the number specially released on that date.

6. The selection for releases must be made in fair proportion from all classes of offenders, regard being had, as far as possible, to the character of their original crimes and their conduct in jail. The number to be released should be spread as evenly as possible over all the localities in the State.

7. In the case of short term prisoners and other prisoners who do not obtain release under the terms stated above, Government are pleased to sanction a remission of their sentences according to the following scale:-

ORDER NO.P. 1325-35/Pris. 24-40-4

Dated, Bangalore, the 31st August 1940.

As an act of clemency and grace on the auspicious occasion of the Pattabhishekam of His Highness Sri Jaya Chamaraja Wadiyar Bahadur, Maharaja of Mysore, on the 8th September 1940, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore have resolved to release a certain number of prisoners and to remit a portion of the sentence of other prisoners confined in all the Jails and Lock-ups in the State.

2. As regards the prisoners to be released on the 8th September 1940, Government have decided to release

(i) all prisoners, male and female, under 21 years of age, irrespective of their sentence;

(ii) all prisoners, male and female, under sentence of one month or less who have worked out one-third of their sentence on the 8th September 1940;

(iii) all other female prisoners whose release will not be dangerous to society;

(iv) all prisoners undergoing sentence for offences of a political character; and

(v) male prisoners up to a number not exceeding 10 per cent of the remaining total number of adult male prisoners in the Jails, the selection being made according to the directions contained in the succeeding paragraphs.

3. In selecting the prisoners to be released under Para 2 (v) above, the following classes of prisoners are to be excluded from consideration, viz:-

(i) Those whose conduct during imprisonment in the Jail has been bad or turbulent;

(ii) Those under life sentences, whose original offences were of such a nature as to make the convicts permanently dangerous to society or public order, if restored to liberty; or whose crimes were committed in such circumstances that their release is likely to give rise to a renewal of blood-feuds, or other disturbances of the kind; and

(iii) Professional or habitual criminals including members of notified criminal tribes and prisoners convicted more than twice.

4. In the selection of prisoners who are to be given the benefit of this order, the following classes of prisoners should receive special consideration:-

(b) Those who, though the crimes committed by them were of a grave character, have expiated them to some extent by long imprisonment with good behaviour. In this category are to be included prisoners who, on the ground of advanced age or bodily infirmity, are fit subjects for clemency.

5. Prisoners who become eligible for release in the ordinary course by the termination of their sentence on the 8th September 1940, should not be treated as among the number specially released on that date.

6. The selection for release must be made in fair proportion from all classes of offenders, regard being had, as far as possible, to the character of their original crimes and their conduct in jail. The number to be released should be spread as evenly as possible over all the localities in the State.

In continuation of my letter No. 364-50 dated the 29th August 1940 seeking instructions on certain points in the draft Government Order relating to the release of prisoners on 8th September 1940, I have the honour to state that a further doubt has arisen as to whether the instructions under Para 4 (b) should be taken as a separate categoryfor the release of prisoners independently of the other categories under Para 2 or whether this para 4 (b) should be taken merely as providing the principles to be kept in view in selecting prioners for release under Para 2 (v). As the District Lock-up Officer, Shimoga has recommended two prisoners for release, the one under Para 2 (v) and the other under Para 4 (b) of the Government Order, I request the favour of immediate instructions in the matter.

In connection with the release of prisoners, the order issuing instructions in the matter, contains the direction that the city magistrate Bangalore & Mysore and other magistrates therefore should be present with the jail Supdt at the time of release and to check the released persons & lead a law abiding and peaceful life. The Govt think this is unnecessary and may lead to embarrassment. He desires that instructions shd issue at once informing the Deputy Commrs & Distrct jail Supdts & release prisoners at 8 A.M. tomorrow instead of 10 A.M. and that the presence of a magistrate need not be insisted.
